world. There furriers from everywhere go for peltry, and, of course, it takes cash. Sales are held in January, more important ones in March -but you do not care for such detail. Yet the London sales are to be thanked for this very unusual fur sale at Wanamaker's.

A- fellow manufacturing furrier, anxious to get started for London, and for Leipsic, where he must go for Persian lamb skins, has sold us the residue of his winter stock-

The Muslin Underwear Sale New York was nonplussed, Tuesday—the papers had announced "white goods sales" here, there and everywhere. And for once—in a very long time—it seems that the Wanamaker advertising was not taken seriously. On that day we sold only seriously. On that day we sold only a little more underwear than was sold on the corresponding day a year ago. whereas the store's business is vastly greater now than then. But Wednesday, after you had looked around -had matched the talk to the goods -well, Wednesday's sales made a new high-water mark, and yesterday we were still busier.

Why? Because money goes farthest here; because any woman can be really satisfied with the underwear we

The Half-Year Carpet Sale Yesterday's selling of odd rolls and part-rolls of carpet started with a total lot of quite Forty-eight Thousand Yards. Do our best, even with such an attendance as yesterday, we only ing references, age and salary required, sell some ten thousand yards in a also enclose photograph with applica-day. So, today's choosing is as tion, to G. W., box 164 Sun office. good as yesterday's.

But, whenever possible, bring room-sizes with you-exact or approximate. Then you can tell in a jiffy whether there is enough of the carpet you like to meet your needs. The saving amounts to a fifth to three-fifths off regular prices.

Just think of it! A carpet that would ordinarily cost $25 for a roomful, may be had for $20 in some cases; for something like $17 in most cases. And, if the room is small, you may find a remnant that will do -and the $25 carpet may only come to $10 or $12. fashion yesterday. Librarians drew on their appropriations where they had any (and others wished for the power and the pile). It was a feast day for book lovers.

As good choosing to-day as yesterday. Near as we could count them, three thousand five hundred more books were added to the lot yesterday-ready for this morning's visitors.

Every book that has dog-eared page, smudge, scratch or blemish, is being culled from this big book stock and sold at such price as to make it an irresistible bargain.

Something of everything-devotional, standard and new.

And overly-big lots go as wellany kind of a loss; no matter. We didn't build the largest American book business by being afraid. Book Store, Ninth Stre

Men's and Boys' Clothes— Reduced

The January adjustment sale starts this morning. It means just this: As winter lots sell down to small heaps, we put today's hurry price on the balance and let them go.

We are conjuring spring clothing now-have to work way ahead.

300 Men's Suits, $15 to $22.50 values, at $12. Almost three hundred Overcoats for Men, values $25 to $35 (a fair lot of each grade), all marked at $20.

Men's double-breasted Fancy Vests, been $2.75 to $5, are $2 today. Boys' Double-breasted Suits, for ages 8 to 16 years—values up to $8. The price is $5.

3-piece Suits for boys of 8 to 16, at $5, instead of $6.50. Knee Trousers, made up from remnants of fine suitings, 65c, though in a regular way they'd be $1 and $1.25. Excepting the last item, this sale is exclusively of our own rather high grade clothing-no "bought to sell"

Of many a home besides Blerheim the

Of many a home besides Blenheim the same question would be pat. Furnishings of various periods are swept into a room, and "surmounted by something Japanese," without regard to one's needs, until each piece seems to eye it's neighbor askance, and there is no rest anywhere.

What a pity, particularly now when every one is entertaining, that all have not learned that beauty—is—comfort!

Our store is ready to teach them! Innumerable examples show how to group colors and styles and how to furnish cosycorners, hang draperies so that the spirit of cheer and welcome will fill every room.
